Australian Healthcare Messaging Laboratory (AHML) of Suite 15 Greenhill Enterprise Centre, University Drive, Mt. Helen, Victoria 3350, is an independent, not-for-profit organisation managed by the Collaborative Centre for eHealth of the University of Ballarat. This Certificate entitles the limited use of the AHML logo in conjunction with the product, version and specifications so named above. This certificate at all times remains the property of AHML.

This document is issued in accordance with NATA's accreditation requirements. Accredited for compliance with ISO/IEC 17025(2005).

The testing against the HL7 messaging standards by AHML is endorsed and supported by HL7 Australia.
